Many Things Are Meant

By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertisise Good Groceries, no mention is made of PRICE.
When price is mentioned
QUALITY IS OVERLOOKED.
Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.

We preach the Three Main Virtues of Groceries—Quality*Quantity*Price

AND MINER*Notes Gathered From Exchanges*About This Industry.

Seven carloads of machinery for the Butterfield Mining Company's new plant at Osceola were shipped from Salt Lake City last week.

The feature of the parade in Virginia City on the Fourth was 300 miners in line. They also had a float on which were miners going through the operation of drilling.

Supt. Davis of the Glasgow & Western put on a small force of men at work Thursday, putting the company's gold mill in shape for working custom ores which are now being taken from our local mines.—Ely News.

Very rich ore is being extracted from the New Century mine in Eschequer Canyon. This mine is the north extension of the Eschequer mine, a producer of millions above water level and now waiting capital to pump out the water and extract the ore discovered long ago below water level. A fine opportunity for capital.—White Pine News.

STEAMBOAT

The Great Western Mining Company is ready now to resume work on its shaft at Steamboat which was recently brought to a standstill on account of inability of the pump to handle the water. Superintendent Hopkins has returned from California, where he purchased a large pump and a gasoline engine.

As soon as they are installed work will begin in three shifts. The shaft will be sunk in an endeavor to pick up the stratum that yielded the rich assays from borings. If it cannot be tapped by the shaft a drift will be run from the bottom of the shaft to the westward.

Development work is being done on a number of claims in this district and some of the prospectors are getting encouraging assays.

claimed that a Reno Indian killed her and that her neck and collar bone were broken. It is said that fifty Indians left here Wednesday to hunt down the murderer. The mahala was in Reno not long ago where she got into some trouble with an Indian who afterward threatened to kill her. It is reported that she left Reno to get away from her enemy.—Courier.

A MISSING WILL.

It is understood that the late John H. Coleman of the Evening Chronicle left an estate valued at from $10,000 to $15,000, representing his savings since he arrived on the Comstock about fifteen years ago, says the Report. About three years ago he made a will, bequeathing his property to various institutions in this city and California.
Since his death an active search for this will has been prosecuted by Interested parties, but all traces of it have disappeared and it is feared by those acquainted with the eccentric disposition of the deceased that he destroyed it before his death. The witnesses to the document were J. M. Davis and the late Frank Sullivan. We have it on the authority of a Comstock legal light that if both witnesses to the will were alive the estate might be distributed according to their recollection of the contents of the will, but as is well known to all Comstockers, Mr. Sullivan has been dead for nearly two years.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly.
His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he wrote: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50 cents. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

The Vice-Presidency has long been regarded as an almost insurmountable barrier to the chief executiveship, except by succession in case of death, and no one so succeeding has ever been there after been elected. Van Buren, if our recollection serves us correctly, was the only Vice Presidential exception to the rule. When one comes to think of it, the United States Senatorship seems almost as great a hurdle to Presidential aspirations as the Vice-Presidency. The prominence of Senators Hanna and Fairbanks and the presence of other Senatorial names has caused the discussion of the "Senatorial hoodoo" to become quite animated. The Boston Herald goes into the discussion at some length and quite exhaustively. It reviews the list of those who failed of the presidency apparently because they were Senators, and makes out quite a case against the hoodoo.

"Henry Clay," it says, "resigned his seat in that body when he was seeking the presidency in 1844. Webster was out of it at the time he had the most hope of nomination. Seward and Chase were unsuccessful while Senators. Blaine did not like to stay in the Senate and left it voluntarily. Of the minor Senatorial aspirants, none have received nominations. Benjamin Harrison was an ex Senator when he was nominated and had this honor because he came from a doubtful State. John Sherman failed, and Garfield, whose nomination was an accident, was only a Senator-elect. Douglas was disappointed in Presidential ambition, as was Bayard later, and Cass and Buchanan were both nominated rather because they had been out of the country than from their Senatorial records; the record of Cass as a Senator was an injury to him."

The subject has been given a wide discussion in the newspapers in the east, but while all agree that the Senate is a hoodoo, no satisfactory explanation of the fact is advanced. The Journalist would modestly suggest that it is attributable to the general fact that the best as well as the worst Senatorial record provokes hostility, and that a man with no record at all is stronger in convention and before the people than the possessor of the best record that has ever been made by service in the upper branch of our national legislature.

DESTROYERS OF THE WORLD.

It is officially reported that the British in the Transvaal and the Orange Free State burned 731 farm buildings, mills, cottages and hovels in the last seven months of the preceding calendar year, and the number is not likely to be an over statement. Lord Kitchener of Khartoum, impatient at the slowness of the Boers to appreciate British benevolence now plans, so it is authoritatively reported, to burn the veldt; to sweep away every vestige of food for cattle or shelter for man and leave the entire land blasted and desolate at the commencement of the cold season.

An exchange in speaking of this barbarous vandalism accomplished, and contemplated, says: "In Moslem law three occupations are forever accursed—not only the assassin, but that of the tree cutter and stone burner, because they 'destroy the earth'. Christian generals of the latter day are less squeamish. To destroy the earth is a patriotic deed if committed by the strong to crush the weak."

If the proverb is true about the man who makes a blade of grass to grow where none had grown before, what a chance some of our Congressmen have to insure the everlasting thought at the hour of death that their lives were not lived entirely in vain! By voting for a magnificent irrigation appropriation they will help to make not only the millions of millions of blades of grass to grow where none had grown before, but cause millions of new desert areas to bloom with everything of the vegetable creation that is useful to mankind. If they do not grasp this opportunity we fear that some of them will find that they stand on the books of the Recording Angel with about the same amount of credits as the bladeless grass man of the proverb.

Says the Atlanta Philanderer: Yesterday, July 4th, was the day set for inaugurating civil government in our Oriental archipelago. The day was ill chosen, since the very principles of the immortal Declaration first proclaimed on that day, have been denied to these people. The colonial policy yesterday inaugurated in the Philippine islands is the policy against which our forefathers rebelled 125 years ago. They are denied the protection of the Constitution, they are taxed without representation, and are held as subject colonies, contrary to the spirit and genius of our republic.

There has been a good deal said and written lately in regard to what our flag stands for. The latest, and perhaps not the least sensible of the explanations of the status of our national bunting, is embodied in an advertisement which claims that it stands for Hostetter's bitters.

It is again proposed to make Hawaii a county of California. If it is consummated there will doubtless be a great exodus of San Francisco politicians to the islands to run for the State legislature. The mileage to Sacramento would be a nice little fortune in itself.

ABOUT MINE AND MINER

Notes Gathered From Exchanges About This Indns-try.

The Carson carnival is over. It has proven an immense success as an attraction, and the Journal hopes equally so financially. The Carson people deserve great credit for their enterprise. It is doubtful if a town in the United States of its size has ever presented such a list of attractions in a fourth of July celebration. It will be Reno's turn next year, and it will keep our people stirring to come up to, to say nothing of exciting, the affair at the capital city.

Is liquid air, after all, to supplant electricity as a motive power? It is claimed for it perpetual motion, or that the power thrown off exceeds that required to liquify the air. The cost of production is known only to the Boston Automatic Company, which is handling it. Probably the economic question is the hitch, and if that is successfully solved the trolley and the dynamo and their electrical associates will be abandoned to give place to a atmospheric power.

Nevada is likely to have the benefit of the services of Harry Flannery again in shaping her political course. The Southern Pacific company will, on the first of August, close all of the bars on its ferry boats running between Oakland and San Francisco. Harry has control of the bars on the narrow gauge line, and the temporary movement on the part of the S. P. will throw him out of a job.

There is a shortage of $30,000 in the San Francisco mint. The fellow who stole it was probably well saturated with the McKinley prosperity argument.—Elko Independent.

Perhaps so, unless the "ware" washes him into the penitentiary, as it did a couple of refinery prospectors at the Carson mint a few years ago.

The flag without the constitution has about the same significance as a circus bill posted in Pioche, giving notice of a performance to be given at Virginia City; or the sign of a restaurant hung over the door of a blacksmith's shop.

"The world" wants things that are genuine." These are the commencing words of an article written by an esteemed friend of ours who is accused of dyeing his hair and padding the rump of his pantalons.

There is something for Americans to think of in Herbert Spencer's declaration to Englishmen: "Whatever fosters individualism, makes for barbarism; whatever fosters for peace, makes for civilization."

Thanks for the numerous kindly notices of our contemporaries of the Journal's new management. We are too modest to reproduce them, but they are appreciated just the same.

The Sultan is about the fiftieth fraternal part of a widower. One of his wives died the other day, and he will doubtless be incalculable until the complement is filled.

If Mr. Bryan is losing his attractiveness as a public speaker, the audience he draws do not indicate it.

THE COMING RACE. The members of the Reno Wheelmen's racing team are all in fit and proper condition for the great contest next Sunday afternoon with the crack team from San Jose.

With the exception of Reno the Gardena City team is the speediest on the coast. Our boys do not anticipate a walkover, but they believe that they will win. Even money bets are being made on the outcome. It is understood that the San Jose money is being put up from a bunch sent over from California. The Reno sympathizers are taking all bets of this sort that are offered.

The track is being put in superb condition. It will be very fast by next Sunday. Riders are requested to keep off the oval after 5 o'clock in the evening, when it is wet down. The team will be made up about the same as the aggregation that went against the Capitol City boys.

OSTEOPATHIC TREATMENT. Dr. J. B. Donahue, D. O., has opened offices in the new Quinn building, where he will practice osteopathy in all its branches. The Doctor is a graduate of the Kirksville, Missouri, school, the original college of osteopathy. He has practiced in Chicago and other cities. Consultation and examination free. All diseases treated.

FLAGGED THE TRAIN. Last evening the V. & T. express came to a sudden halt as it was pulling into Reno. A drunken Indian woman slipped through the timbers of the railroad bridge and instead of attempting to climb out, she wildly signaled the train. It stopped within six feet of her.

CLOSING EXERCISES. President Stubbs and Professor N. E. Wilson will attend the closing exercises of the extension class of the University of Nevada on Wednesday evening in Virginia. This is the first attempt by the University in extension work and has proven very successful.

MAKING PROGRESS. Dr. Stubbs has received a letter from John J. Sullivan of Virginia, a graduate of the State University, stating that he has successfully completed the examination for the third year's work in the medical school of Columbia University.

LINE TO WADSWORTH. The construction crew of the Sunset T. & T. Co. have nearly completed the line at Lake Tahoe. When this is finished they will build from Reno to Wadsworth. All the material for this line has been scattered along the right of way.

HOME AGAIN. Roy Skinner is back in Reno after an absence of five or six years. He has recently been on the school ship Independence in the marine hospital corps. He is home on sick leave.

ABOUT MINE AND MINER

Notes Gathered From Exchanges About This Indns-try.

Ore is piling up and more teams are needed to haul it to Sodaville, says the Tonopah Bonanza. The condition of affairs will become worse instead of better as soon as the trains which have been ordered arrive.

The suit of James Kessel vs. the Austin Mining Company, which was commenced in the Third Judicial District Court some weeks since, has been transferred to the United States Circuit Court at Carson.

An indication of the activity prevailing in this camp is the fact that a rush order has been sent to San Francisco for a half dozen Davis whips for the use of the various leasers, who wish to expedite the extraction of their ore during the remaining time of their leases.—Tonopah Bonanza.

The Gardenville Record reports the uncovering of a mammoth ledge of copper near the old Spooner station and says it is the largest body of copper ore ever found in that part of the State. The ledge is 400 feet wide, and so far shows good copper values clear across. Croppings have been traced from this immense ledge down to the copper mines back of Genoa. Several parties are at the new find prospecting, and several business men of Genoa and Gardenville are interested.

The statement in a San Francisco exchange that an important ore strike had recently been made in the Overland mine near Silver City, is not confirmed at local headquarters.

The White Pine News says that "Sol Hill, one of the owners of the Pilot Knob group, has received assurances from Bryon E. Shear of Denver that the bond now held on the property will be taken up and the money paid at the time specified in the contract, notwithstanding the withdrawal of P. L. Kimberly."

Heber Holman, employed in Comstock mines more than a quarter of a century, is about to locate in Reno.—Chronicle.

Claims have been located on a vein near Glenbrook, Douglas county, showing 11 per cent copper.

The management of the Dexter-Tuscarora of Nevada is now drawing upon the big ore body in Tuscarora ground for its riches, and already the battery discloses an average nearly double that upon which the crushers have been running.

Seventeen mining claims in the vicinity of Ely, White Pine county, are reported to have been optioned by the wife of President McKinley and her sister to an Eastern syndicate.

The Harrel group of mines at Sprucemont, Elko county, is producing ore showing 50 ounces silver and 15 per cent lead per ton. The vein has a width of four feet.

The machinery and buildings of the Kinkad mill have been taken down and are being hauled to the Sayre mine near Sweetwater.—Bulletin.

Alpine never had a brighter mining outlook than at present. Last week a test run on five hundred tons of ore from the Lewis mine was finished, and it was so satisfactory, that arrangements are now being made to double the number of stamps at the mill.—Record.

ERRONEOUS RUMOR. It was reported in Reno yesterday that Chapman, the plucky Sacramento rider, who collapsed after his relay with Mershon at Carson, had died of heart failure. The Reno Wheelmen's Club telephoned to Sacramento and discovered that the rumor was incorrect. Little Chapman is still suffering from collapse but his recovery is looked for.

SEERESS RETURNS

Mrs. Sandy Bowers Comes Back to Reno, Old, Infirm and Poor.

Mrs. L. S. Bowers the "Washoe Seeress," widow of "Sandy" Bowers—that bright particular star that dazzled the financial firmament in the early days of the Comstock—arrived in Reno last night, poor, ill and almost friendless. In those early days she had an income equal to a king's ransom. Her mansion in Washoe Valley was a home of splendor. Wealth flowed through her fingers like water through a sieve. There seemed no end to the source this silver stream from the fountains of the Comstock.

But an end to all this came. The windows of "Bower's folly" were boarded up. Grass grew in the garden and weeds sprang up where the roses bloomed. For years Mrs. Bowers has barely subsisted in San Francisco on the income from her alleged clairvoyant powers.

Age and its train of ills came next. Money had gone and friends with it. Mrs. Bowers has come back to the scene of her former triumphs, an old decrepit woman, to await the summons to another world.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

A house is being built over the shaft of the Bell mine.

There are thirty-one inmates of the Washoe county hospital.

L. G. Wedekind has begun the erection of a new residence.

Thieves are still on deck, dishing out cold drinks to thirsty people.

P. L. Flanagan will ship a train load of barrels to San Francisco today.

Conrad & Schadler have begun the erection of Jay Clements' new home on South Virginia street.

Some rats of sheep were shipped from this point yesterday. They were consigned to San Francisco.

Ed. Pollock tried to argue matters with the cops and got 20 days for it yesterday in Justice Lann's Court.

An inquest blaze on Lake street caused an alarm to be turned in Sunday afternoon. The damage was slight.

Julius Haydon expects to receive a 30-ton smelter within the next ten days. It will be erected at his Bullion mine.

Plot Hutchinson of the division of agriculture in the United States Department of agriculture is inspecting the work of the local experiment station.

HIGHWAYMEN DO BUSINESS

The hold up men—the tall and the short—are again plying their nefarious trade in this vicinity.

They succeeded in "touching off" Henry Pelic Sunday evening as he was on his way from Laughton's Springs to Reno.

After he proceeded a short distance on his way and had reached a point known as Chalk Bluff, he was confronted by two highwaymen who went through his pockets and secured about $50.

Mr. Pelic hurried to Reno and reported the robbery to the officers. They made a search for the men but got no trace of them.

THE ARTIST TAILOR.

W. Schur, the artist tailor, began business in Reno in a small way a year and a half ago and has built up a splendid trade. He is a tailor for a syndicate of the most prominent people in this city. His work always gives satisfaction. Mr. Schur makes a specialty of ladies' tailoring. He worked six years at this business in Paris 2 weeks ago.

A POOR MILLIONAIRE

Lately stayed in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of a King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach and digestion promote assimilation improve appetite. Price 25 cents. Money back, if not satisfied, sold by J. H. Dickinson.

TO APPLICANTS.

The County Board of Education will be in session at the High School building, Reno, July 5th, 8th and 10th for the purpose of holding the regular semi-annual examinations for teachers' certificates according to law. All applicants will report at the above named place at 9 a. m. Monday July 8th.

W. H. A. PIKE, County Superintendent.

WORKING IN EARNEST.

Superintendent Perry sent a wagon load of T rails and lumber out to the Putnam mine yesterday for use in the J & K tunnel. In a few days Mr. Perry and Director Young will take out a complete assaying outfit.

Dr. Loope is one of the owners of the rich Boulden Hill mine in Alpine county.

A. B. Lemmon Jr., of Santa Rosa, spent yesterday driving about Reno and enjoying neighborhood.

He expressed himself as surprised and pleased at the change that has come over the spirit of the dream of this city.

"There is a spirit of enterprise and energy that seems to have been recently awakened. All signs point toward rapidity of growth and increasing prosperity."

"The mineral discoveries made within the past eighteen months are largely responsible for this dawn of a new advancement. I visited the Reno Star and Bell mines this afternoon and believe that they will be productive of immense wealth within the next few years. There is no danger that the metalliferous deposits will be exhausted within the life time of any one now born. Depth will only bring improvement in values, or my ideas of geology and mineralogy are greatly at fault."

"Reno is a distributing point for a vast territory, rich in undeveloped resources. This fact alone will make of the metropolis of Nevada the leading city in the Great Basin."

SOME STATE FAIR MATTERS

The speed program committee of the Nevada State Agricultural Society have, after five days labor, completed the next State race program.

Secretary Bevier sent it to the printer last night. It will be ready for distribution in a few days.

The purses will be considerably larger. Three for $500 each will be hung up. All the other purses will be proportionately larger.

A reduction has been made in the matter of entrance fees. They will be five instead of ten per cent as heretofore.

The State Fair will probably be held some time in September. Its special attractions will be announced later on hangers.

STILL AT IT.

George Wedekind has spent a generation prospecting the hills of the west for gold and silver. His toil and privation have been amply repaid through his discovery of the Reno Star ledge. But the prospecting fever has not burned out him. He is outfitting for another trip into the hills. Accompanied by one of his sons he will set out for the north in a few days and endeavor to discover another bonanza.

AFTER STATISTICS.

State Controller Davis and Lieutenant Governor Judge went east Sunday evening, having been sent out by the State Revenue Board to gather tax statistics to bring before the Court in the pending suit between the Southern Pacific Company and the State of Nevada.

THE FIRST PAPER.

In the mineral cabinet, at the Riverside is the first copy from the press of the first daily paper issued in Reno. It is the Nevada State Journal, dated March 21, 1874.

PROBLEMS TO SOLVE

Dr. Hitchcock Tells About the Work of Experiment Stations.

Dr. Hitchcock of the department of agriculture will spend several days in this State studying the condition of range feed and natural meadow grasses.

He said last night to a Journal reporter:

"My visit was not to inspect and criticize the work of your agricultural experiment station, which, by the way, I find to be capably conducted. The men in charge are alive to the value of the work in which they are engaged and are prosecuting their investigation in a painstaking and diligent manner."

"My visit is principally for the purpose of obtaining not only co-operation with the department in its lines of work but to bring the various experimental stations to a co-operative scheme of labor."

"The most important duty of the agricultural stations is to select and test grasses suited to arid and alkali conditions, such as are met with in the west."

"Where we have water almost anything will grow. The question is to find grasses that will flourish where water is absent or limited in quantity."

"The department realizes this fact and, in proportion to population, is spending more money in the arid States for experimental purposes than in any other part of the Union."

HOW TRAFFIC WAS HANDLED

During the four days of the late Carson Street Fair and Carnival, the Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company handled, going and coming, what would amount to nearly 5000 passengers on single trips and even with this great traffic, there was not the slightest hitch in the train service, not an accident of any description. Some of the trains carried fully 1000 passengers, yet through the foresight and perfect management of Master of Transportation Ardrey there was ample accommodation and the time of the departure of trains gave perfect satisfaction to the excursionists.

The management of the V. & T. as well as the employees deserve great credit for their courtesy, accommodation and promptness in every detail in connection with the transportation of the visitors arrived from Carson during the Carnival week and the company has made a record in addition to that made at the time of the great prize fight, that it is capable of meeting any demand as regards transportation of crowds of people with perfect safety and comfort.
